Harvi Times Party

The Amity class of the Baptist Sunday school gave a hard times party at the church parlors Monday evening of last week. The party was given in honor of the members of the winning side in the "Go-to-Sunday-school-and-stay-to-church" contest which has caused a great deal of lively interest among the class members for the past few weeks.

Each guest was met at the door by the committee, carefully gone over for finery in clothes and jewelry and duly fined for anything verging on good dressing.

Games were played and appropriate refreshments of bread and water served. Later in the evening the crowd enjoyed a real feed of salad sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Picnickers Hike

Tuesday evening, April 9, a number of high school students enjoyed a hike to the hills north of town. Toasted weiners and a picnic luncheon was enjoyed on the heights.

Those of the party were the Misses Ina Akin, Maude Hyde, Ruth Carey, Rose Perry, Rosamond Tuttle, Bessie and Blanche Lowe, and Chaperons Miss Ruth C. Hardie and Miss Annette Pritzkan.

Picnic at White Rocks

The Misses Lulu Darnelle, Dora Herman, Gertrude Berry, Ollie Moore, Florence Bock, Edythe Robinson, Eleanor Bock, Olive Courtney, Winnifred Finfield, Pauline Swacker, Ethel Brockley, Ulda Basle Mildred Lovelace, and Messrs. John Harmon, Loren Basler, Allen Underwood, Alvin Hall, Earl Pittenger, Harold Terwilliger, Lester Calhoun, Wilbur Bearss, Hiram Harmon, Douglas Pinkerton, Parke McCracken, Ted Birchard, Hal Truax, Wallace Niles, and Bob Bestul, and their chaperon, Mrs. P. B. Herman, comprised the jolly crowd of picnickers that met at the city park Thursday evening and enjoyed a picnic luncheon of sandwiches, pickles, saratoga chips, cake, cookies, cherriport, then played games and walked on to the White Rocks. Here a fire was soon crackling and weiners and marshmallows were enjoyed.

Tatting Club

Mrs. Myers pleasantly entertained the Tatting club at her home on North Seventh street, Friday afternoon, April 12. Those present were Mesdames Hodgkinson, Mark Luckett, George Shepherd, G. Swayze, Pittenger and Glass, and Miss Rosamond Tuttle their visitor for the afternoon. A delightful afternoon was spent during which Mrs. Glass and Miss Tuttle rendered several beautiful musical numbers. Sandwiches, coffee, cake with whipped cream and strawberries were served.

Mrs. Swayze Entertains

Mrs. G. Swayze charmingly entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home on North Tenth street Saturday afternoon of last week. The girls enjoyed games until ice cream, cake and strawberries were served. Those present were Izora Keller, Juanita Armentrout, Corlyss Courtney, Josephine Isham, Lulu Garrett, Rose Fallin, Bertha Calhoun, Ina Peterson.

Bridge Party

Mrs. George W. Donnell was the charming hostess at the card party given at her home on D street Tuesday afternoon of last week, at which she delightfully entertained three tables at bridge. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Dr. Truax, Mrs. M. Clemens, Mrs. O. S. Blanchard, Mrs. Donald Calvert, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. J. W. McVicar, Mrs. George McVicar, Mrs. Roy Bartlett, Mrs. C. F. Nutting, Mrs. Bannard, and Mrs. G. P. Jester. Salad, sandwiches, cake, coffee and ice cream were served.

Losers Pay Honor to Winners

The Mesdames Mike Clemens, Galvin, A. J. Klocker, Roemer, Stricker and Everett Holman were hostesses at the luncheon given at the Hotel Josephine Thursday, at one-thirty o'clock.

These ladies, the six losers in the series of twelve games of the Monday afternoon auction bridge club gave the luncheon in honor of the six winning members of the club—Mrs. I. W. Clark, Mrs. Joseph Moss, Mrs. C. A. Hough, Mrs. J. R. Jester, Mrs. Roy Bartlett, Mrs. Lister. Substitute members and guests of the day were Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Hobart, Mrs. Harmon, and Miss Alma Wolke.

Delicately tinted pink sweet peas were effectively arranged as the table decoration. The dinner which was a five-course one, was well served and did honor to those in charge in every respect.

After the luncheon the ladies went to the home of Mrs. Clemens and spent the rest of the afternoon over the bridge tables.

P. N. G. Club Entertained

The Past Noble Grands club was entertained last Friday afternoon by Miss Verna McCann at the Kinney home on West A street. The house was artistically decorated with plants and flowers. Huge baskets of pink and white roses were effectively arranged in the parlors and dining room. After the business meeting of the club a Victrola concert was enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments were served, consisting of cake and pink and green ice cream, the colors being emblematic of the order.

Rebekahs Initiate

The first in the series of the many social events of the past week was held in I. O. O. F. hall at the regular semi-monthly meeting of Etta Rebekah assembly Monday evening.

Fully 100 members were present, not only to welcome the six new candidates that were initiated into the mysteries of the degree but to witness the new initiatory drill that has been brought to the highest state of perfection by the time, patience and constant drilling of Mrs. Violet Clements as physical culture director. The twenty-four white-robed ladies, with their flower-wreathed wands, marching to perfectly timed music through the intricate maze of the "drill," justly deserved the praise and approval so generously given them at the close. The present plans are that the entire team "exemplify" the drill as a part of the program to be given at the Rebekah convention that will be held in Roseburg the latter part of May.

Mrs. Jeanie Burke, captain, and Mrs. Violet Clements, director, are justly proud of their united efforts in bringing the drill work to its present stage of perfection.

Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served at the close of an altogether pleasant lodge and social evening.
